

makes a primary exit road impassible should be considered as part of the security program development. While no security measure can prevent these occurrences, communication,